What is the halacha? Write Yes or No:

- 1) If a man is on a train and there is a woman among the crowd that has her arms or shoulders exposed, should he turn his body to face the window in order to make a bracha?

- 2) If a man is sitting in an aisle seat while traveling and there is a woman among the crowd that has her arms or shoulders exposed. If facing a window will not help, is it enough for him to close his eyes in order to make a bracha? _____
- 3) If an indecent film is being screened and a man wants to make a bracha does he need to turn away? _____
- 4) If a woman is dressed in a see-through blouse, may a man say a bracha when facing her?

- 5) Is it sufficient enough for a man to close his eyes when he sees an inadequately dressed woman through a window or mirror? _____
- 6) Is it sufficient for a man to close his eyes when facing a picture of an inadequately dressed woman? _____
- 7) May a person daven "Shmonei Esrei" in front of a painting or photograph of a person or interesting scene? _____
- 8) May a man look casually (meaning without any specific interest) at a woman when talking to her if she is properly dressed? _____
- 9) Is a bracha of a person valid if said without knowing that an unclad person (to the extent that it is considered "ervah minhatorah") was in front of him (without suspicion that the unclad person was there)? _____
- 10) If someone did not actually look at the unclothed person, but was aware of the fact that he/she was likely to be there, is the bracha valid? _____
- 11) If a person said "Shema" when looking at less than a tefach of exposed flesh, does he have to repeat the "Shema"? _____
